

RAISE AWARENESS VISIT TO EXTERNAL TARGET GROUPS SVILENGRAD, 15.11.2018

Project “Protecting biodiversity at NATURA 2000 sites and other protected areas from natural hazards through a certified framework for cross-border education, training and support of civil protection volunteers based on innovation and new technologies”, with acronym „eOUTLAND“, Subsidy contract № B2.6d.06/02.10.2017

On November 15, 2018 in the building of "Petar Beron" Secondary School in Svilengrad the first meeting in a school from Haskovo District in connection with „Raise awareness visits to external target groups: schools, local authorities, etc.“ on the project “Protecting biodiversity at NATURA 2000 sites and other protected areas from natural hazards through a certified framework for cross-border education, training and support of civil protection volunteers based on innovation and new technologies”, with acronym „eOUTLAND“ was held. The event was attended by 30 participants - students from "Petar Beron" Secondary School in Svilengrad, representatives of the Municipality of Svilengrad, volunteers from the local voluntary formation and the Regional structure of fire safety and protection of the population-Svilengrad.

The following topics were discussed during the meeting:

- Presentation of the project with acronym "eOUTLAND". Main objectives. Project partners, forthcoming activities, expected results and products from the project implementation.

- How to become a volunteer. Voluntary formations in Haskovo District. Functions and tasks of volunteers during floods and heavy snowfalls. Role and significance of the preparation of the Voluntary formations
- Discussion panel on topics related to volunteering and volunteer formations.

